

The Commons

From the Queen Elizabeth Library to Hatcher
Memorial University of Newfoundland

Computing Support Centre

The computing support desk is for students and faculty seeking help with computers, printers and technical support!

Digital Media Center

- The Digital Media Centre allows for students and faculty to have access to a wide range of multimedia tools. From the new oculus rift to a green screen to poster making, there is something for everyone!

The Makerspace

- The Makerspace in the QEII Library is where your ideas come to life with a 3D printer, a sewing machine, and much more!

The Writing Center and Tutorium

- The writing center and Tutorium are perfect for crafting your skill in writing the perfect essay with another knowledgeable student as well as teaching you new skills or improving upon old ones.

Assistive Technology

The assistive technology room allows for students with different abilities to use equipment that might aid in their studies, particularly with reading and writing.

Hatcher Commons

- The Hatcher Commons is a place to quietly study as well as get computing support. It is open from 2 PM-2 AM, perfect for late night study sessions!

The Rotunda

- The Rotunda is another study place with access to computers. It is open 24hrs during exam season.

Tutoring at Hatcher Commons

- For students struggling in certain subjects or wanting to connect with peers in their classes, free tutoring sessions held at Hatcher Commons are the perfect resource.
